Reprieve for Hotham, consul backs club

Victorian Provisional League First Division club Hotham United is making a strong bid to reverse the decision of the VSF Investigation and Disciplinary Tribunal to suspend the club, ef-fectively expelling it from the league.

league.

Hotham appealed against the tribunal decision and the VSF Appeals Board met last week with a solicitor representing the Hotham committee, the Argentinian consul and Jose Montex from radio station 3EA. It also received a host of written submissions including a petition supporting Hotham and signed by almost 600 people.

Hotham was in trouble with the VSF over a game against Rosebud which was abandoned amidst violence.

The preliminary submission from Hotham's solicitor established that the tenets of natural justice had been transgressed at the tribunal bearing.

Hotham had received a telegram from the VSF, calling the club to appear before the tribunal. No charge had been named in the telegram. Indeed Hotham first knew of the charge against it on the night of the tribunal beaches.

Appeals Board chairman and Queen's Coun-sel, Michael Knott, after consultation with his three fellow Board members, ruled that the tribunal meeting which suspended the club be ruled invalid.

Hotham, not knowing the charge until the night of the tribunal meeting had been unable to prepare a suitable defence.

So it's back to square one. Hotham will be formally charged by registered mail and will appear before the tribunal tomorrow night (Thursday) at 7.30pm.

The club has the right of appeal against tomorrow night's decision.

Meanwhile all Hotham matches will be postponed.

Meanwhile all Hotham matches will be postponed.
The star of the night, my first as an observer at an Appeals Board hearing, undoubtedly was Knott.
His sharp wit and ability to communicate at varying levels captivated most participants in the night's activities.

George Cross appealed against the $500 fine imposed on the club for comments allegedly made by club president Alf Zahra to referee Sam Zoumas after a State League match earl-

Sam Zoumas after a State League match earlier this season.
It didn't take Knott long to come to grips with the situation
Zahra had been charged as an individual yet the tribunal had punished the club instead of punishing the charged party.
So It was a happy ending as far as George Cross officials were concerned.
But Hotham still has to sit on the club's future in Victorian soccer-CRAIG MACKEN-ZIE.

Ambitious Ajaxfrom mud plains to brink of glory

Green Gully AJax is poised to reap the richest possible harvest from one of the most ambitious recruiting campaigns in the history of Australian soccer.

Ajax bought no less than 10 players at the start of the season.

Such drastic team rebuilding can result in disaster, as so many clubs have found out to their detriment over the years.

But in the case of Ajax, it resulted in the club moving to the top of the Victorian State League ladder in the fifth round of the com-petition and staying there until now. With six rounds to go, Ajax has an excellent chance to win the championship and, perhaps, to gain promotion to the Philips League.

The 10 players acquired this year are: Peter Lewis and Stewart Cannell from Altona, John Gardiner from Croatia, Kit Greechan from Western Suburbs, Kevin Wall from Frankston, Gordon Wallace, Alan Bennett and Gus McLeod from Scotland, Paul Lewis from England and Jim Williams from Heidelberg-Alexadder.

The only 1980 players who remained are Dave Hogben, Lou Denys, Bill Morrey, Gerry Bennett and Willie Vassallo.

Winning the State League title would be the crowning achievement of a club that has risen from the mud plains of St Albans to become an example to many of the longer-established clubs.

Twenty-six years old, Ajax was formed in 1955 to cater only for juniors. Harry Moakes formed the club along with pioneers Frank Kolbi and Joe Sammut.

Ajax won the Victorian under 16 championship in 1960 before entering senior competition in 1962, and it was promoted progressively in 1963, 64, 66, 71 and 76 to finally reach the State League.

reach the State League.

The 1966 team that won its way into the Second Division included some of the pioneers.

Henry Dynak, Joe Biewer who now is coach of St Albans, Charlie Grimand, George Zimboulakis, Arnold Langer who truce was best and fairest and who now is club treasurer, Nick Kulbh, present committeeman Boris Brain and Charlie Vella, new with Broad-

The 18% from which was promotion to the State League included longer serving player Mario Berg who also is on the committee now, guilkeept Mick Burg. John Grade (ex. Keilor City). Roy Collins who wan the league best and fairest award that year. David Cole who was club best and fairest, much-travelled Eddie Klimczak who played for many less suburban clubs, youth representatives Andy Segi (now Western Suburbs) and Manny Spi-teri and of course long-serving Franz Berenz.

In order to do well in its first State League season, Ajax embarked on a recruiting cam-paign that was nowhere near as successful as the one Bobby McLachlan engineered this

Among the players bought at the time were Les Thomson and Peter Donaldson (Heidel-berg-Alexander), Willie Vassalio from Malta, Jim McGill from England, Tony Hammill from Altona City, and John Patten from Sla-via

But the team finished second last, Luckily Polonia finished nine points behind, in last place — and only one team was relegated.

Another recruiting campaign followed in 1978, with Dave Perkin and Steve Carr coming from England, Stan Klain from Werribee, Ian McCarthy from Sunshine and Steve Bennie from Stayie McCarthy won the club's best and fairest award but the team finished ninth. It was Ringwood Wilhelmina that was relegated.

Ringwood Wilhelmina that was relegated.
More new blood flowed in — Billy Vojtek from Croatia, as player-coach, Mick Klaria, and Joe Pavlekovic, while long-serving Franz
Vojek's influence resulted in Ajax achieving its greatest success up to that time — winning the Ampol Cup, It beat Vojek's former club, Croatia, 5-1, in the early rounds, and took the final 5-3 on penalties after drawing 1-1 with Slavia after extra time.

But in the league it was the same old story. This time Ajax finished 10th, while Slavia and Albion Rovers were relegated — the first year that two went down, instead of one.

Jimmy Dunne, the former Eire international, was the star recruit of 1980. He was joined by Morrey and Bennett from England and Grant Smart from Croatia. It also was the first year under coach McLachian.

Dunne canned a great reason by many and the start of th

McLachian.

Dunne capped a great season by winning "Soccer Actions" best and fairest award and also the Bill Fleming Medal and Ajax had its best State League season, finishing third behind Makedonia and Croatia.

The foundations have been laid. The ambition is to displace Croatia and the other traditional State League giants and to be recognised as No. 1 in the State.

Croatia remains a stumbling block but the ambition is close to being realised.

Fashanu farce. Eddie's error

I heard the remarkable comment while I Justin Fashanu is not fitting into Adelaide City's style of play.

My, my I guest Kevin Keegan would be hard to fit in as well — or Beckenbauer, or Maradona, or Grazlani. Surely Adelaide football is not so advanced that there is no room in it for Fashanu. Against Blacktown, Fash-anu was lying wide on the right wing.

The Philips League is approaching its close with only two teams in the running for the championship — Sydney City and South Melbourne Hellas.

They've had their ups and downs but they've been the most consistent and either of them would deserve the title. It's a hard thing, winning the championship, and at this stage experience is everything.

Sydney City's players have that experience, for they've been there before, whereas the Hellas players may start making silly mistakes borne out of nervousness, or excitement.

Vex, yes, that's been reported dozens of times since Hakoah sand it had acquired the Argentinian star.

But this time it's you on, dead set, no worries! (we hope.)
Serimosi, he was due to arrive at the time we went to Press.
Few countries have produced as many genuinely great players as Argentian. De most prominent have been Alfredo Di Stefano, pagaration behad Real Madrid of the 1950s, and Diego Maradona, who appears destined to be equally influential in the '80s.
Only lack of dedication has prevented Rene Houseman's inclusion in the citie group.

Of Belgan extraction. Houseman first came to the fore with Categoria 'B' (Second Division) team Defensores De Belgrano. Officials at the small Buenos Alres club still recall the promising youngster's reluctance to train and how on numerous occasions he had to be located and dragged to the stadium just minutes before kick off.

The raw skill though was obvious and Argentina's leading clubs all watched his progress with immense interest.

A transfer to First division Huracan brought him under the wing of disciplinarian Cesar Luis Menotti and here he began to fulfil his enormous potential.

all watched his progress with immense interest.

A transfer to First division Huracan brought him under the wing of disciplinarian Cesar Luis Menotti and here he began to fulfil his enormous potential.

A devastatingly brilliant dribbler, Houseman consistently tore defences to shreds and was the prime factor in Huracan's 1973 National Championship.

One year later his fame spread further during a World Cup in which he proved a revelation.

Although Argentina won just a single game out of six, it produced some of the most delightful soccer of the tournament with its tiny winger in scintillating form.

Back home Huracan's fortunes slumped, despite being able to call upon internationals Miguel Brindish, Osvaldo Ardiles, Carlos Babington, Jorge Carrascosa and Houseman.

The decline coincided with Menotit's elevation to the position of national team coach.

Houseman though continued his wizardry on the flanks and Brussels club Anderiecht offered Huracan $800,000 in an attempt to bring him back to the land of his forefathers.

Being in the World Cup squad however, he was barred from moving abroas the large with his club over a contract renewal, Houseman in the Huracan was in no position to meet the star's de-Mardan.

Hardon Huracan was in no position to meet the star's de-Mardan.

In dispute with his club over a contract renewal, Houseman missed much the 1977 season through suspension.

In the 1977 season through suspension to be the star's demands. Eventually supporters of the Buenos Aires club solved the problem by raising cash amongst themselves and presenting a large bonus whenever their hero scored!

With his protege now back in action, Menotti immediately recalled Houseman for the 1978 World Cup build-up.

He responded with a series of glorious performances, although his tendency to hang onto the ball brought accusations of excess individualism and not being a team man.

As the most experienced member of the squad (he, Mario Kempes and Ubaldo Filiot being the only survivors from 1974), there was no doubt about his place in the host nation's opening line-up.

line-up.
Unfortunately the Huracan winger failed to reproduce his supreme best in the finals and spent much of the time on the substitutes' bench.
Appearing in six games, he spent a total of 327 minutes on the field of play.

In the final against Holland, Houseman made his appearance in the 74th minute of normal time and immediately added bite to a forward line which was making little impression on a solid Dutch forward line which was making little impression on a solid Dutch rearguard.

In the 11th minute of extra time the replacement surged clear and was only thwarted by a brilliant Jan Jongbloed save. The writing was on the wall though and the revitatised Argentinians ran out worthy 3-1 winners.

A World Cup Winners' medal is the ambition of every soccer player, and having achieved this a return to domestic football appeared mundane, particularly as relations with the Huracan management continued to be strained.

Following the move of Ardiles and Ricardo Villa, Houseman also sought a transfer to England. Middlesbrough expressed interest only for Huracan to offer a massive pay increase and he was happy to stay — for the time being.

Playing in all five games of Argentina's 1979 European tour, Houseman increased his number of international appearances to 60, a record only recently surpassed by Americo Gallego.

The South Americans' last tour match, against Scotland at Hampden Park, marked the end of the quicksilver winger's international career.

A lax attitude to training was blamed for a remarkable loss of form which resulted in omission from Menotti's pool.

The fact that he was now free to ply his trade overseas was a consolation and Detroit Express of the North American Soccer League was on the verge of completing the signing when, once again, Houseman and Huracan agreed terms.

The peace treaty was only temporary. With Argentina's continuous hyper-inflation it is essential for players to renew their contracts regularly.

After the 1978-79 season, Mycak returned to the United States for a short period and then got an offer from White Eagles in Tasmania, an offer which he accepted. He didn't know much about Australia but regarded it as a challenge. Goalie saves penalties and scores them too

Any player who is worth 14 goals to his club must be an asset. If that player happens to be a goalkeeper, he's more than just an asset; he's a sensation!

John Michniewski, 37, is the goalkeeper of top Tasmanian Rothmans League Division I team, White Eagles. At six feet one inch, Michniewski is every inch a goalkeeper. He is agile and swift, has a powerful throw and kick, and handles the ball with an excellent technique developed during his many years of top-class expereince.

This season he has saved seven penalties and has scored seven himself, an outstanding performance by any standards.

White Eagles were relegated from the State League last season but have bounced straight back at the first attempt. With three easy games left, they are four points in front and have the best goal difference in the league.

Michniewski deserves a lot of the credit for the team's success. In Tasmanian soccer, only Peter Brine and Erc Young can manifest the continue of the continue Michniewski also played with Unia Racibor in the Polish First Division for two years and in the Second Division for five years (the team is now in the Third Division).

Robert Harrison, just back from Wollongong in the Phillips League, is the best goalkeeper he's seen locally. The most dangerous local forwards he's faced are lan Parker (Brighton-ICL) and Brian Davidson (George Town).

makes his debut

Robert Trafficante, hailed by all at Hellas as a star of the future, will get his big chance in the senior team against Hanimex United at Olympic Park on Wednesday, August 5.

The match kicks off at 7.30 pm. Hanimex played Olympic in Sydney yesterday (Tuesday) and meets Wollengong tomerrow (Thursday).

Trafficante, a State youth representative, joined Hellas from Juventus and has been starring in the club's Second Division team.

The word is that Alan David-on will be playing in midfield ext season, and that Traffi-ante will come in as left back.

This match against New Zealand's Hanimex (formerly North Shore United) is ex-pected to be the forerunner of a series of matches between Hellas and teams from over-

Hellas's main consideration against Hanimex is to regain prestige for Australian soccer, after the Kiwis' victory over the Socceroos in the World

Shrewd coach John Margaritis is likely to make a few experiments in this game — experiments he cannot afford in the championship, as he and his team are determined to bring the title to Victoria for the first time.

This will be Hanimex's 95th season playing Association Football in Auckland and championships have been won in every grade the club has entered teams, from midgets to the Rothmans Soccer League.

the Rothmans Soccer League. Founded in 1887 at Devonport by Charles Craven Dacre the first name of the club was Devonport on a suggestion by a New Zealand Herald's sports writer so as to avoid a clash with the North Shore Rugby.
Club Dacre had played in the first official Association (soccer) match in England during 1863 when the counties of Surrey and Kent played Middlesex. This was not the only sport in which he became involved.

He was an excellent cricketer and played rugby for North Shore, in fact in 1876 he played for Auckland in the first interprovincial rugby game won by Auckland against Canterbury and it was Dacre who scored the first points with a try early in the game.

It is a fact that many good sportsman excelled in more than just one sport and quite a few have been connected with the club over the years — Leo Prime played for Auckland at soccer, cricket and hockey in the early 1900's.

Later two sons of Charles Dacre Ces and Life, appeared together in cricket and soccer representative teams in 1920, Ces later getting New Zealand caps in both sports.

Jack Cowie may be better remembered as a fast bowler and the late Verdun Scott as an opening batsman, but both were very good soccer play-ers, Verdun played for New Zealand in Rugby League.

To mention in this space, all the club records would be impossible so perhaps one of the most unusual would be more fitting. The run of 83 consecutive games by the club's premier team at Devoaport Domain from 1897 until July 1996, ending with an away game at Eden Park which at that time was the headquarters of the Auckland Football Association.

Last season saw the start of a new era by joining the ranks of those clubs who have changed their names to those of a sponsor. North Shore's Rothmans League team is known as Hanimex United.

known as Hanimer United.

Mr Cameron, Sales Manager, looks for a long and successful partnership between the two parties both on the soccer field and in the building up of the new North Shore Sports and Recreation Centre in Devonport. Here Shore has 13 and a half acres to develop for soccer and other uses and the clubrooms on site now are being fully used and development of the fields is now going ahead.

The 1979 season, the first of the partnership with Hanimex, saw the club have its finesto year, possibly the best in New Zealand soccer history.

The club won: the Air New Zealand Trophy; the Chatham Cup and the Bill McKinlay Trophy.

In addition, Don Jones was selected as Auckland F.A.'s Coach of the Year. Players for New Zealand in 1979 were Adrian Eirick, Duncan Cole, Duncan Ornond and Neil Haines. After such an achievement Hanimex immediately doubled its sponsorship and increased the agreement with the club to live years.

While Croatia was crusing to a 5-0 victory over Canterbury in the NSW State League the other front runner St George was struggto a 1-0 win over bottom-of-the-table Bankstown.

This Sunday's clash between the State League's two top teams becomes even more in-triguing following last week-end's results.

In the 28th minute, Cole combined with Gary Byrne in a one-two which carried the ball into the Fijian penalty area, where Byrne pulled the ball back to a flying Peter Sharne who smashed it into the net from three metres.

Three minutes later Cole scored the best goal of the match when he controlled a pass with his back to the keeper, juggled the ball and hit it on the turn past a flat-footed Ravonoi.

Barnes had the ball in two minutes later but Indonesian referee Sudarso disallowed the goal.

Kempes shaded by Houseman

Ambitious, but impoverished, Huracan promised a salary which it simply could not meet.

Unpaid for over a month, Houseman and the rest of the club's senior players declared themselves "free agents."

Immediately River Plate, one of Argentina's most illustrious clubs, moved in and offered a one-year contract.

With the new club his form improved dramatically and during the first handful of games he outshone Mario Kempes, River's $3,500,000 acquisition from Valencia. The honeymoon was short, though.

$3,500,000 acquisition from Valencia. The honeymoon was short, though.

The Argentine champions' sensational elimination from the Libertadores Cup by unreated Deportivo Call of Colombia prompted a complete clear out and Houseman was released.

Celebrating his 28th birthday on the day Hakoah was scheduled to meet Footscray JUST (July 19), the Argentinian represents an extraordinary coup for the Sydney club.

Houseman often has been likened to George Best, not simply because of his ability but a similar disregard for hard training Helias rarely got mid-fielders John Stevenson and Jim Shirra out of their own half and relied heavily on for-wards Branko Buljevle and Steve Wooddin putting their foot on the ball and waiting for support which often did not come in time.

But Hellas had good reason to be cautious. It missed four players — Alun Evans (sus-pended), Alan Davidson and Steve Blair who were in Fiji with the Socceroos, and Billy Rogers who was in hospital after falling off a roof while working on Saturday.

In the light of those handi-caps, Hellas must be ex-tremely happy with a point. Socrates Nicolaides came in as Rogers' replacement, and played at left back, with Bertile Lutton as sweeper.

Hellas coach John Marga ritis was quite satisfied.

Wellingung coach Ken Morton saw it differently "We should have won," he said. "We hit the post with a header, we had one cleared off the line and a great shot by Peter Treddinnick was saved brilliantly by Peter Laumets."

This result has given Hellas the front running in the chase for the PSL title, as league leader Sydney City lost to Bris-bane Lions.

Hellas has a game in hand against Brisbane City, and if it wins that game, Hellas will be a point ahead of Sydney City at the top.

Wollongong started off in great style and looked set for a win when it scored early but didn't go on with the job. The Wolves' supporters can't be blamed for feeling frustrated as they watched their side play their 12th draw in 24 games. Wollongong had a dream start when Billy de Graaf.

At 23. Ilioski is the secondyoungest team captain in the PSL. The youngest is Olym-pic's Peter Katholos who's Like Katholos, and the young stars he talked about earlier, Ilioski emerged from the ranks of Australian junior soccer.

He was II when he came from Prelet in Macedonia with his parents Nedeljko and Maria Nedeljko, who was a midfelded ni amareu soccer at home, was returned to the his son play in Melbourne. "II was a strange place to him."

Ilioski says. "He didn't want Ilioski says. "He didn't want was the says was beared to the says." moski says. "He didn't want to take any chances. He wanted me home early every night. But now he's my No.1 supporter and the No.1 sup-porter of JUST. He wouldn't miss a game."

As a junior, Ilioski played up front and usually scored two or three goals a game.

In fact, he scored so regularly that he was chosen by coaches Bill Curran and Bebby McLachian to represent Victoria at under 14, 16, 18 and schoolboy levels.

And at J.U.S.T. he would often play two matches a day — for the under 12s early, and then for the under 13s or under 14s afterwards.

One of the highlights of his junior career was playing in the Footscray Tech team that won the Australian schools championship by beating Elizabeth High in Adelaide 3-2. Elizabeth High was coached by West Adelaide Helias star Barry Reynolds, while Footscray Tech's coach was former Ringwood Wilhelmina goal-keeper Rudi van Altena.

Ilioski's team mates in-cluded Peter Laumets (now Hellas), Mendo Ristovski, (Juventus), Fred Dimitriou (Polonia), Rick Lipiarski (Polona), and Boris Gilevski (Altona Gate).

In the Victorian schools final, Footscray Tech beat alan Davidson's Altona Tech 3-0. Ilioski scored twice and Gilevski once.

Ilioski scored the winning goal in extra time as Foot-scray Tech beat Kuringal in the semi-linals, and in the final against Elizabeth, it was Ristovski who got all three.

three.

In the various Victorian representative teams of which lilosid was a part, of which lilosid was a part, of which lilosid was a part, of which lilosid was part, of which lilosid was part, of which lilosid was a lilosid llioski's first opportunity in senior soccer came in 1975, in the Victorian State League.

Frank Micic was not going to last forever, and coach Cirkovic was looking for someone eventually to replace the J.U.S.T. general. He chose liloski who was 16 at the time.

"I had to do the marking, and the chasing," he remembers.

"I had to follow the oppo-sing stars all over the ground — Jimmy Mackay of Hellas and Dave Rigby of Moorool-bark for example.

"Micic was very good to me, and so was Branko Bul-jevic. Those two carried J.U.S.T. for many years."

He also had a high regard for J.U.S.T.'s great goalscorer, Slobodan Zoraja. "I set up quite a few goals for him," he says..... "little Zokkie and big Zokkie." He laughs.

"1977 could have been a good year too. I started well, but I broke my nose in a clash with Peter Wilson and it kept me out for six weeks.

"Last year I had a few problems with the coach, Rocco Ille, but I've settled down now and I'm playing well. Ille always told me off at training. He couldn't tell off the older players, so he told off the younger ones. I'm not saying he's a bad coach — he's very good — but I told him off one night at training and he put me out.

"Cirkovic always tells me before the game what I should do and he gives me confidence. I have learned more from him than from anyone else.

"Being made captain also improved my game. It gave me more confidence. Players respect me more now. I'm not the young kid any more. They're friendlier to me."

Ilioski has played just about every position on the field — that's why he'd be such a great asset to the Socceroo squad. Midfield, left back, sweeper, right back, even forward (although he's worried he hasn't played there for a while) are his domain.

Midfield is his favorite position now — and he scores goals from there. Asked which of his five goals so far was his best, he says: "Each one I score is better than the last, but I've been unlucky. Not one has been on TV."

There's no chance in his mind that J.U.S.T. will be relegated. Who then? West Adelaide, probably, he says, and the other will be either Blacktown or Sydney Olympic—probably the latter because Blacktown has a better defence.

What's caused the improvement in J.U.S.T's fortunes? "The spirit is better row," he says. "The players are friendly together — like a family. It was not like that before. Cira made all the difference, I think. Everyone's fighting for the club now. Lujic's return has made a difference too. And Verweij is trying his best all the time. One minute he's a strickrup front, the next he's back to help his defence. It's been a long time since J.U.S.T. had a centre forward like that."

But J.U.S.T.'s away results remain dismal.

Ilioski blames it on the travel.

"Most clubs travel on Saturdays and stay overnight.
"We travel on the morning of the game, unless we're playing in Newcastle or Brisbane. We have to get up af 6 or 7, then it's off to the airport, a bus to the motel, another bus to the ground.....the players get very tired."

Preston Makedonia was interested in buying Ilioski last year but JU.S.T. ob-viously didn't want to lose him. It quoted prices of be-tween $20,000 and $25,000 and succeeded in scaring Make-donia away.

He'll stay at J.U.S.T., he says. He's happy there.

Asked to name his tough est opponents, he lists:
Jimmy Mackay, Dave
Rigby, Jimmy Rooney Ulysses Kokkinos who played for Hellas and Heidel berg, and Tommy Cumming

About Rooney, he volun-teers: "He's very hard and also very tricky. He'll push you, and he'll step on your feet. He doesn't care — he plays it hard. He's not really dirty though. I respect him a lot."

Today Rooney is the doyen of midfielders. In 10 years we'll be saying the same about Ilioski. Meanwhile, Ilioski has the talent to achieve what Rooney has. All he needs is the chance.

Brisbane City lost not only sweeper Jimmy Dunne who was sent off, but also Barry Kelso whose penalty points were pushed over the limit when referee Tony Boskovic showed him the yellow card.

Brisbane City will miss both of them when it plays against Newcastle in the curtainraiser to the Queensland v. Italy Rugby Union match at Ballymore at 1pm on Sunday.

It was the combination of Dunne's dismissal and a penal-ty save by Kim Wishart that Dunne's dismissal for al-leged foul and abusive lan-guage by referee Tony Bosko-vic in the 69th minute galva-nised Brisbane City into the frame of mind that took it to victory.

frame of mind that took it to victory.

Dunne had remonstrated with Boskovic over a penalty against Steve Perry, which was awarded after Blacktown's striker Paul Burrows appeared to dive as Perry sought to dispossess him.

Midffelder Brian O'Donnell, who had notched a 44th minute penalty, drove the ball to Wishart's left.

It was the same side he had favoured in his first effort. Wishart guessed correctly and Blacktown had lost a winning header on to the outside of the post.

Wishart dropped one ball right on his own goal ling among a milling group of players, but somehow his goal remained intact.

Barry Kelso, Brisbane's glant striker, opened his team's account in the 3xrd minute from its first worthwhile opportunity.

The Blacktown defence was looking for an offside decision as Dunne put Kelso in possession and goalkeeper Bruce James had absolutely no chance of reaching a scorching drive.

Adelaide City looked likely to record a crushing win with two goals in the first 20 min-utes. Guest striker Justin Fashanu gave his side a fifth minute lead when he easily beat Newcastle goalkeeper Phil Dando from only three metres. MATCH RATING: 82nd.) — Fashanu 7 (Miller 79th.), Northcote 7, J. Nys-kohus 8.

Sergio Melta, who set up Fashanu's goal, scored 15 minutes later after a simple passing movement that ex-posed large holes in the New-castle defence.

Adelaide almost pressed further ahead but a goal in the 37th minute by Bobby Russell was disallowed.

Newcastle took advantage of that let off to hit back strongly at the visiting defence and twice in the last two minutes of the half could have pulled one goal back.

Striker David Jones saw his 41st minute attempt headed off the line by his Adelaide City namesake and in the 43rd minute watched his 12 metre shot cannon into the cross-bar, with the goalkeeper beaten.

Newcastle captain Roy Drinkwater, playing his 100th game for the club, was the in-spiration behind the home team's second half revival.

Drinkwater had been denied three headed attempts before his perfectly timed header in the 68th minute brought New-castle back into the game, From this moment on Adel-aide City tried to hit back but found that it couldn't turn its game on and off like a tap.

KB levelled in the 85th minute when Jones crossed from the left, the ball eluding Adelaide City's defenders and falling to the foot of Graham Heys who made no mistake from the centre of the six yard area.

The 1976 State League season was a good one for him, but 1981 has been the best, he says.

No Hellas mercy for underdog West Adelaide

By CRAIG MACKENZIE

West Adelaide has stared up at South Melbourne Hellas throughout this season and things shouldn't change when these teams meet at Middle Park on Sunday.

While West Adelaide labors among the also rans, Hellas is poised to remind its fans of the good old days when a league championship became an accepted part of the club's booty at the end of a season in Victoria's State League.

Winning means more to Hellas than most clubs. Indeed winning is part of the Hellas tradition.

Hellas won the State League championship in 1976 then challenged St. George for the unofficial title of Australia's premier club. Hellas won and embarked upon a new era in the infant PSL the following year. Everyone connected with the club was in a euphoric state. Hellas was the best.

History records Hellas's lack of success in the PSL. No records are kept of the feelings of the club's proud supporters, hurt by the unexpected struggle.

Smiling faces, cheering fans and confident predictions fill the air. You almost can smell

Both are Greek clubs, one ymbolising success, the other stark reminder of what using is all about. Hellas on't show mercy far its South instralian neighbour.

Alun Evans should be back after serving an automatic one week suspension for accu-mulating too many penalty points and Alan Davidson and Steve Blair will return after last weekend's World Cup clash with Fiji.

With a full strength line-up With a full strength line-up Hellas will win and keep up the pressure on Sydney City as both club's knuckle down to fight out this year's championship battle to the final flurry.

Preston Makedonia should rab at least a point from Sun-ay's Connor Reserve contest gainst Ken Morton's Wollon-

Morton claims that Wollon-gong has rekindled the organ-isation, aggression and bite which took it to the top of the PSL ladder early in the sea-

. John Lathan has done well since vacating his midfield role and pushing up front but he'll find Makedonia stopper George McMillan a handful.

McMillan has aggression, speed and tackles fervoiously. He's revelling in his return to his former role as a destroyer after years of playing up front and banging in many goals. I pity Lathan if he gets in McMillan's path and whatever filters through the Makedonia defence, sweeper Ljube Petrovski will be there to take charge and get Makedonia forward again.

But Wollongong's defence is just as uncompromising. On paper this looks like a stale-mate so I'll back a draw.

mate so It losted arraw.

Sydney City slumped to a shock 1-4 defeat to Blacktown a few weeks ago in their game deferred from a PSL round earlier this year. The Slickers complained about Blacktown's defensive tactics and will be out for revenge on Sunday when they host Rale Rasic's certific at the Sydney Athetic Field.

Fleid.

A win is a must for the classy Sydney City If its top of the table status is to remain intact.

Forget the ballyhoo about Blacktown's offside trap. Sydney City will win with John Kosmina back from injury to partner the best finisher in the PSI. Kenny Boden. PSL, Kenny Boden Marconi goes into Sunday's home game against Footscray JUST with a fine record against the Melbourne based outfit.

JUST has beaten Marconi only once in nine PSL encoun-ters and shouldn't enhance that low winning record here.

that low winning record here.

Marconi's problem will be to try to break through the packed JUST back line while not getting caught too far forward allowing Zdravko Lujic to wreak havoc on an undermanned defence.

I think JUST will surprise everyone and fly back to Mel-bourne with a vital point to add weight to its renewed effort to climb away from the tail end of the league ladder.

On paper the Adelaide City

— APIA Leichhardt meeting at Olympic Sports Field on Sunday promises a bagful of goals.

If APIA is to catch up to front runners Sydney City and Hellas it must throw away any thought about containment away from home, take the game to Adelaide City and go for both points.

Should APIA coach Willie Wallace adopt an attacking, adventurous approach, the fans at Olympic Sports Field will be in for a tremendous spectacle.

I'd like to see the visitors throw down the gauntlet to the home side.

This could spur on Adelaide City, boosted by David Mit-chell's return from national team duty, and make for a great advertisement for PSL soccer.

I lean slightly to the local side.

Sydney Olympic's helter skelter approach to defence won't reap rewards when it runs into Heidelberg's strike force led by Jamie Paton and Gary Cole.

I'm tipping the Bergers to win. I've stuck by them in recent weeks, believing that there's no substitute for quali-

Graham Jennings will find out why Arthur McMillan's one of the best full backs in the PSL and I doubt whether Peter Katholos's abundant skills and creativity will split the Ber-gers' back four.

I've been hearing a few interesting things about Bris-bane City in recent weeks. Seems that harmony isn't the keynote of the relationship between some of the players up Spencer Park way.

The story goes that if some Brisbane City boys put as much aggression and effort into league games as they do in training games against each other then the Brisbane boys could be world beaters. Well, not quite world beaters but you know what I mean.

know what I mean.

Whether my information is fact or fiction I think Brisbane City will put enough effort into Sunday's game against Newcastle KB to pick up both points.

And Canberra looks capable of breaking through Brisbane Lions' solid central defensive combination of Jim Hermiston and Col Bennett at the Bruce Stadium on Sunday.

APIA central defender and former Socceroo captain Peter Wilson (left) South Melbourne Hellas and Kiwi inter-national Steve Wooddin to the ball. Wilson faces up to Makedonia's brilliant Doug Brown on Sunday.

BERGERS BAG McLEOD

Heidelberg-Alexander last week final-ised negotiations for centre back Don McLeod, 20, of Nottingham Forest. McLeod was expected to arrive in Melbourne as we went to Press. He is the young brother of Gus McLeod, the goal machine of leading Victorian State League club Green Gully Ajax.

Don McLeod, 20, was captain of Not-tingham Forest's reserve team but has been granted a free clearance.

Heidelberg failed to replace Pat Bannon when he switched to Essendon Croatia early this year.

It hopes McLeod will fill the bill.

With just six games to go to the moment when either Ajax or Croatia will be proclai-med the champion team of the 1981 State League competition, the weekend's games involving clashes between the top six sides, should prove crucial to this year's title race.

Ajax must be favored to clinch its first State League championship. Not only because it enjoys a two point break at the top but also because it hasn't had to suffer from the coaching changes which have characterised Croatia's season.

Croatia has a hard task on Sunday against George Cross at Chaplin Reserve.

I think Croatia can win. Bobby Teal is the key to Cross's fortunes up front. He has no hope of beating Steve Kokoska in the air so the Cross pian probably will be to play bails into Toal's feet and work off him.

The Loughnane lads, lan and Peter, have given Croydon the bite up front which was lacking during the club's mini mid-season slumn.

Ajax has the chance here to add weight to its claim for inclusion in the 1982 PSL. The players can show off their wares in of a fair side.

Players like Brian Sinclair, David Brooks, Noel O'Brien, Paul O'Riley and John O'Callaghan are too good for the lower echelons of State League.

Frankston will be happy to leave Chaplin Reserve on Saturday evening with a point-from its clash with Sunshine.

Sunshine coach Dave O'Connor experimented last weekend by pushing Dennis Morovic up into a left sided midfield role and dropping back Christ Taylot to left back. The Shiners won 31 so its likely that O'Connor will maintain the positional switch.

I still feel that Frankston can steal a point.

Altona seems to have lost its competitive edge so I expect Northcote to grab both points at John Cain Reserve on Sunday.

Forget last weekend's 3-30 scoreline in favore of Croydon. Northcote looked very good coming forward in the first half but poor finishing robbed it of taking the lead.
